DOG PROTECTS STRAYED CHILD

Takes Bite From Officer's Trousers—Leg

Keeps Police at Bay Until Mother Comes

Adds Howls to Boy's Cries
During Vigil

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—In guarding a 3-year-old lost boy, a pet black-and-tan dog barked defiance at the police of the Fourth-street and Snyder-avenue station for two hours. From the moment the boy and dog—inseparable companions—were found together on the curb at Sixth street and Snyder-avenue, shortly after 9 a.m., until claimed by the child's mother, the dog maintained his guardianship so faithfully that police could not get them apart.

The boy was identified by the mother, two hours after they were found, as Francis Phillips, 119 Shunk street.

When Sgt. Cleaver found them the child was crying and the dog beside him howling half a dozen passers-by were grouped about them, held at a distance by the dog's snarl.

"What's this, a lost boy?" said the sergeant. He walked up and patted the boy on the head.

The dog, a mongrel about eighteen inches high, took a firm grip on the sergeant's trousers. As Cleaver jumped back the dog tore off a part of his trousers leg.

The child continued to cry and the dog again joined in with howls. Cleaver crossed the street to a butcher shop and returned with an empty barrel and turned the dog in it.

"Hold down the barrel and give me a good start," said Cleaver to the spectators. He picked up the child and started a dash for the station house.

When he had gone more than a block the bystanders released the dog, who was yelping frantically. The animal darted in pursuit of the child and the policeman.

Despite increased speed by Cleaver, who is more than six feet tall, the three reached the house where the boy's mother lived. Cleaver slipped the boy to the floor as the dog, with a flying leap, again caught him by the trousers.

The dog again took up its post at the child's side, and defied the police. It licked the boy's hands and his face. The police, using a yardstick, pushed a chair to the boy. He climbed into it and the dog sat down in front.

Police found the boy's knowledge of language consisted of but one word, "Mommy."

"Where do you live?" "Mommy."

More questions brought more "Mommys," and then the boy began to cry and the dog never failed to chorus with barks and howls.

The mother, Mrs. Anna Phillips, was on her way to the police station to report her son lost, when she heard the barks of the dog.

"When I heard them I knew Francis was safe," said Mrs. Phillips. "My husband always carried Francis pennies when he returns from work, and I guess he was starting out to meet him to get the pennies as soon as possible."

"The dog is a good guardian. He has been a constant companion for Francis, and he even sleeps with him."

The dog, apparently greatly relieved, effected a different attitude when the mother entered the station house. He jumped about barking and tried to kiss the hands of every policeman. Then, with his tail swinging, he strutted from the station before the mother as she carried her son home.

GOOSE FAMED IN "WET" DAY DIES

"Jaakey," of Bibulous Habits,
Had Legion of Friends
Who Would "Buy"

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

ST. LOUIS (Mo.), Jan. 30.—Jaakey, a goose, who took his whiskey straight and washed it down with a swig of beer in preprohibition days, is dead. He was 18 years of age and was owned by John Keller, former saloon proprietor. In the old days a round of drinks wasn't complete unless Jaakey was in on the set-up.

When Jaakey had enough he would go to the shed and sleep it off. Thousands of visitors, it is said, have gone to St. Louis just to buy Jaakey a drink.

WOULD KEEP CONTROL OF PHILIPPINES

Kansas Judge at Manila
Dinner Pleds Permanent
Sovereignty by America

(BY WALTER ROBB)

(BY RADIO-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

MANILA, Jan. 30.—It will be a great day for the world when the United States Congress has courage enough to declare permanent sovereignty in the Philippines.

Judge John W. Hausman, a veteran of the famous Twentieth Kansas Volunteers, declared at a typical dinner here in celebration of Kansas Day, attended by fifty former residents of that State.

After the dinner, the group sent a cablegram to Gov. Davis at Topeka, as follows:

"Greetings, speaking at our anniversary dinner tonight, Judge Hausman said that America's flag the Kansas boys helped to plant here in greatest stabilizing influence for peace and progress in the Far East and will remain here as a beacon of democracy to the Philippines, a beacon of democracy to the Philippines, a beacon of democracy to the Philippines."

More questions brought more "Mommys," and then the boy began to cry and the dog never failed to chorus with barks and howls.

The mother, Mrs. Anna Phillips, was on her way to the police station to report her son lost, when she heard the barks of the dog.

The dog, apparently greatly relieved, effected a different attitude when the mother entered the station house. He jumped about barking and tried to kiss the hands of every policeman. Then, with his tail swinging, he strutted from the station before the mother as she carried her son home.

OBSERVATIONS

by the INNOCENT BYSTANDER

W.M.H.

Another case of "local boy makes good" has come to the attention of local sporting fans through the publication of A. G. Spaulding & Bros. of a series of some twelve books of their history, how to sprint, hurdle, etc., athletics for women, in short, a series of books covering practically every branch of track and field athletics.

There's not only something unusual in the publication of such an exhaustive series of books, but there's something of particular interest in the fact that they were all written by a Los Angeles man, none other than Boyd Comstock, former track star and later coach at the University of Southern California. Some of them were "edited" by illustrious individuals in the field of competitive athletics, but all alike were written by Comstock.

Comstock first burst into fame locally in the good old days when they didn't give a darn how many hurdles you knocked down as long as you got there first. Comstock won all the high hurdle races in those days for U.S.C. and introduced the quaint method of running them with a shin guard on his leg so that he could knock 'em over easier and not have so many bruises to mar the beauty of his shapely limbs.

In those days everybody believed that you could make better time knocking 'em over than you could going over the top, hence the shapely limbs of Boyd were considerably more valuable than an all-around star, being a good pole-vaulter, jumper and shot-putter in addition to winning fame as a leading demolisher of hurdles.

After finishing at U.S.C. Boyd next burst into the calcium by stepping out to Claremont High School and developing one of the finest track teams the country ever saw.

With five men, count 'em, he cleaned up everybody on the coast and then went back to Claremont and did the same thing in the national interscholastic track and field meet.

He had Herb Whitte, who ran the hurdles in 15-2-5 and 25 feet, high-jumped six feet, and did exceptionally well in the broad jump and shot and discus.

Hendricks, a demon hammer thrower; Stonewall Jackson, great colored sprinter; and quarter-mile, and Daniels and Holman, relay men.

After winning a national reputation at Claremont, Comstock was immediately grabbed by U.S.C. and turned out a couple of rip-roaring teams in his short stay there. About the most interesting of these was the one that won the national championship at East and has lived in those horrible climes ever since.

Last year Comstock was assistant track coach at Yale and the great Yale team which cleaned up everybody in California, was in no small measure the product of his coaching. At the same time he was working with the Spaulding company writing their literature, and the new books which he has turned out are not only authoritative but among the most interesting ever written about these hops.

NEW COACH FOR OXY BALL TEAM

Wilkie Clark, Former Tiger Mentor, to Return

Bengal Basketballers Leave for Northern Invasion

All-Conference Track Squad to Meet Stanford

BY BILL HENRY

Occidental College burst into print with a crash yesterday with more announcements in one day than the average college can make in a week. Briefly summarized they follow:

(1) Wilkie Clark, coach of two championship teams in 1911 and 1912, will coach the basketball team at Occidental, beginning February 15.

(2) The Tiger freshman and varsity basketball teams leave in a ten-day trip through the state tonight.

(3) Coach Pipal has completed arrangements for an all-conference track and field team to meet Stanford at Palo Alto April 12.

The announcement of Clark's nomination to handle the Tiger basketball men is interesting for the reason that while Clark was on the job the Tigers cleaned up on both California and Stanford in the diamond, and also won notable victories in the south. Clark has been playing ball and coaching for about twenty years, is a college graduate, and has had great success.

Clark will be considerably handicapped this season by reason of the fact that both the varsity pitcher, Johnny Powers and Squirt Fulton, shortstop Cliff Argue and one or two other demons are members of the track team and will not be able to appear on the diamond until late in the year. However, the Tigers have good material aside from these shining lights, and Clark ought to be successful.

It is in the Tiger freshmen that Clark hopes to make a big reputation for the Tigers have with-out doubt the makings of one of the greatest diamond outfits that ever represented a Southern California school. Several of the Tiger cubes turned down Class A.A. contracts last season, and there are players by the dozen already out for the team.

To begin with, there is Bud Teichert, greatest of prep hurdlers, who single-handed won the State title for Franklin. Bud is accompanied by his teammates, Rata Robet, catcher; Mike Godet, third baseman; and Harris Hitch, outfielder and pitcher. Hollywood High contributes Les Haseort, the finest shortstop in prepdom since the days of Zeb Terry, and Solly Miskin, demon first baseman.

Then the Tigers have young men from Covina, Puente and numerous other points of the compass, all of whom are top notchers. Clark and Manager McLain are endeavoring to arrange a series of freshman contests with the teams of Stanford and California.

LEAVE TONIGHT

The Tiger basketball outfit leave tonight in a big Motor Transit deluxe bus on a barnstorming tour throughout the north. The freshmen are leaving at 10:30 a.m. The varsity has to stick around long enough to play a conference game at Stanford.

HOLLYWOOD STAR SETS SWIM MARK

Jerry Witt Breaks Southern California Record for the 500-Yard Race

Jerry Witt, star Hollywood paddler, established a new Southern California swimming record for the 500-yard race last night when he negotiated the distance in 6 mi. 10-2-5 a. at the Los Angeles Athletic Club pool. Swimming against Tom Blake and Colla Smith in one of the feature races of the evening, Witt annexed the Southern Pacific amateur title in convincing fashion.

The Hollywood water dog started out fast and his rivals stuck close to him to begin with. Witt went into the lead immediately and at the halfway mark had a safe lead. Duke Kahanamoku, famous Hawaiian sprint star, showed that he still has plenty of speed left when he won the open 100-yard dash in the good time of 54-2-5 a. The Duke rattled off the first forty yards in 13 a. Les Jarvis, eastern swimmer, was less than a foot behind Kahanamoku at the finish.

Sammy Cohen of the Ambassador Club was awarded first honors in the men's special diving contest, with James Ryan of the L.A.A.C. second. Cohen's work brought him no little applause and his comedy stunts after the regular event were good for a big laugh.

Florence Chambers of the L.A.A.C. won the 100-yard backstroke for women, with Olive Hatch of the same club taking the 100-yard open style.

The results:

500-yard race for men—Jerry Witt, Hollywood, 6 mi. 10-2-5 a.; Tom Blake, L.A.A.C. 6 mi. 11-2-5 a.; Colla Smith, L.A.A.C. 6 mi. 12-2-5 a.

100-yard dash for men—Duke Kahanamoku, Honolulu, 54-2-5 a.; Les Jarvis, eastern, 55-2-5 a.; Les Jarvis, eastern, 56-2-5 a.

ANSTERBERG TO PILOT "DUESIE"

Youthful Driver Nominated for Beverly Race

Will Team Up With Joe Boyer and "Red" Shafer

Elliott Signs for Speedfest on February 24

A wire received yesterday from Fred S. Duesenberg announced that Ernie Ansterberg had been nominated by the Indianapolis manufacturer to drive one of the three Duesenberg entries in the 250-mile championship automobile race scheduled for the Beverly Hills Speedway on February 24.

The nomination of Ansterberg fills out the Duesenberg trio and closes the argument on who was to drive in the Beverly classic as a team-mate to Joe Boyer and Red Shafer. Several other drivers had been under consideration, but Duesenberg finally decided in favor of young Ansterberg, who has been with the Duesenberg team in the capacity of relief driver since last season.

Ansterberg was riding mechanic to the late Koscoe Saries when Roscoe was star on the Duesenberg squad and he is well qualified for a place behind the wheel of one of Duesenberg's new 122-inch speed creations.

EXPERIENCED DRIVER

While Ansterberg is a young driver he has had a great deal of driving experience as he has tuned Duesenberg cars for various race meets during the past two years and he is recognized as one of the best-qualified youngsters to enter the ranks of the speed kings during the past two or three years.

As soon as Ansterberg received word that he had been designated as the third member of the Duesenberg squad for the coming championship race at Beverly he immediately took charge of the car assigned him and was the first man to get out on the course in preparation for the coming classic. For several weeks Ansterberg had been working on the car under the impression that some other driver would get it for the February speed battle so when he was given the car as his personal mount yesterday he was ready to get out and turn a few practice laps on the board speedway where the greatest speed merchants of the world will meet on February 24.

With the announcement of Ansterberg's entry came the announcement yesterday from A. M. Young, manager of the Los Angeles Speedway organization, that Frank Elliott had entered for the Beverly Hills meet giving a total of fifteen entries now on file at the speedway headquarters.

EXPECT FOUR MORE

President C.M. Durant of the speedway organization had a conference with Young last night and announced that it was possible that four additional entries would be received long before the date set for the closing of the lists. Durant said that two of these possible entries were almost certain at this time but he was not in favor of giving out any information until the cars were actually entered as it has never been the policy of the Los Angeles Speedway management to give out an entry, as is often the case with irresponsible promoters of the country fair race circuit, and have the much-heralded star fail to appear.

"With our present entry list we are assured of the fastest race we have ever had at Beverly," said young Durant last night. "With the possibility of four additional drivers our prospects are brighter than ever for a record-breaking crowd. This fact is born out by the fact that Mr. Young, our manager, has been busy during the past week taking care of advance reservations for persons who are choosing their locations in the stands and parking places early enough to be assured of better places than they were able to secure for the Thanksgiving Day race, which broke all attendance records."

Winter Training In Full Swing at Stanford University

Walter's Nine Opens Season With a Victory

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 30.—Winter training in boxing, wrestling, swimming, basketball, and track reaches full swing at Stanford this week, with prospects, particularly in the last two sports mentioned, very promising, and with the candidates in each branch of competition including at least one athlete with reasonable chances of making the United States Olympic games, which will leave for France in April.

The tennis, soccer, and gymnasium teams are also powerful, as is the water polo combination, which meets the Olympic Club on March 8 for the privilege of entering the national tournament at Chicago. Spring sports, on the whole, seem stronger at Stanford than at any time since the World War.

BEGINS WELL

Coach Harry Walter's baseball nine opened the season with a 3-2 victory over Cliff Ireland's independent last Saturday. Left Fielder Charlie Johnston terminating the contest with a home run in the ninth inning with two men on base, after two men had retired and two strikes had been called. The fielding of the team in this game, the pitching of the strongest at Stanford in several years, included: Jim La w o n , catcher; Ted O'Neil, pitcher; Bud Woodward, first base; Murray Cuddack, third base; Ray Mulvey, shortstop; Charlie Johnston, second; Frank Fuller, center field; and McCandless, right end.

Among the heavy hitters who were not in the line-up Saturday are: Capt. Patterson, Trace, and Green.

PICKS SQUAD
Coach R. L. Templeton is so far advanced with track and field training that he picked a first squad of thirty-eight men yesterday. It is powerful in all events but the jumps, and the decathlon looks as strong as any dual meet in the United States. Templeton's candidates are:

Sprints: Campbell, Hale, Miller, Clark; hurdles: Leitner, Bolea, Wells; 440 yards: Capt. Van Judah, Miller, Mixon; 800 yards: Coverly, Richardson, Smith; mile: Smith, Cryher, Kerr; two mile: Charles, Hayes, Clifford; Kerr; high jump: Anderson, Kemmister; broad jump: Wright, Wright; pole vault: Lindke, Farabee; 55-foot: Javelin: Harlow, Arthur, Richards, Hartranft; discus: Richards, Arthur, Hartranft.

Deaf and Dumb Player Wants Hurling Berth

Gerald Wear, a baseball player who is deaf and dumb, is anxious to get on with some local semipro club for a chance to pitch. Wear, who is to have a tryout with the Portland Coast League team this season, was to have held down the mound job for the Woodmen of the World last week, but rain prevented the game.

Needless to say, Wear can't be rattled by the hoots of the multitude. He has been from Vancouver, B. C., and for a time was instructor of physical education in one of the large high schools of Winnipeg. Wear was reached through Joe Pirroni.

Orange Loses to Mercury Casaba Five

In a glittering game played at Orange last night the Los Angeles Athletic Club basketball quintet defeated Orange, Y.M.C.A., 32 to 21. The Orange players started off well, leading at half time, 15 to 10, and ran their advantage up to 19 to 11, before the Mercury men found themselves. A late rally sent the Athletic Club ahead, 25 to 19, and Orange, the most of the work. Minichis, former U.S.C. star, was elected from the Orange line-up for personal fouls.

WATSON TO ENTER BUSINESS IN NORTH

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Lewis G. Watson, captain of the Syracuse University track team for 1932 and 1933 and a competitor in the 1928 Olympic games at Antwerp, has come here to enter business. He is a star distance runner and has done the mile in 4:19. He declares he is not through with athletics, though he probably will confine himself to the half-mile or the mile at the most.

TRACK OWNERS AFFILIATE

San Luis Obispo and San Jose Speedways Join With Ascot in Staging Events

Representatives of the San Luis Obispo and the San Jose Dirt Track associations will attend the big races at the new Ascot Park dirt Speedway Sunday as guests of George R. Bentel, its owner. The San Jose motor race track owners have affiliated with the I.M.C.A., according to word received yesterday by Bentel from the north. Huff Dordard, vice-president of the I.M.C.A., still is in San Francisco and it is believed he will have the San Luis Obispo track under his organization in a few days.

With the two northern tracks co-operating with the Ascot speedway, together with the State fair associations throughout the country, Bentel should have no trouble in promoting a fast circuit.

One of the reasons why J. W. Wilson, manager of the San Jose track, is said to have affiliated with the I.M.C.A. is because most of the drivers now are competing under the banner of the International Motor Contest Association. As sureties were given Wilson that everything possible would be done to protect the smaller tracks.

There will be open dates at Ascot so that the famous drivers will be able to take part in the events on the smaller places. When each track is running on special holiday dates the drivers will be asked to help out the small tracks.

Instead of the postponement of last Sunday's racing cutting down the rivalry between Ralph De Palma and Fred Hory, it has been increased. De Palma has assured his friends that on the well-lit track his faster car will be able to show up Fred Hory in the Frank Garbutt and Ascot Speedway stakes.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—J. Alex Sloan, noted automobile racing authority, and whose cars are driven by Fred Hory at Ascot Speedway in Los Angeles, arrived here today from Chicago with a number of track-building enthusiasts who are planning the construction of several dirt speedways along the West Coast. Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, San Diego and Stockton were represented.

Sloan and the others are awaiting the arrival of G. Huff Dordard, the International Motor Contest Association vice-chairman, and a representative of Ascot Speedway, who are due tonight after arranging for an exchange of drivers and dates between Ascot Speedway, the San Luis Obispo and San Jose dirt speedways. The A.A.A. lost both the speedways.

PRACTICE FOR BIG MATCH

Arthur Havers, Jimmy Ockenden, George Von Elm and Willie Hunter were all out of the links of the California Country Club yesterday, practicing for their return match next Saturday. Von Elm and Hunter, the Rancho amateurs who scored a victory over the British professionals a couple of weeks ago at Rancho, were playing with Arthur Havers, Rancho, while Havers and Ockenden polished up their game under the watchful eye of their manager, James Harriet.

Tomorrow Havers and Ockenden meet George Von Elm and Joe Kirkwood in an exhibition four-ball match. The links of the California Country Club, returning tomorrow night for their big match Saturday at Cal Club, both teams are more than anxious for victory, competition should be keen and a huge crowd is anticipated.

MOUXIE BEST OF SPRINTERS

Culver City Event Goes to Campbell Gelding

Quincy Ward Hangs It on Fleet Dan Arvi

Small Crowd Witnesses a Good Day's Sport

BY ED O'MALLEY

MOUXIE, son of Harrigan-Miss Van Winkle, was the big thing at the Culver City race track yesterday. The Campbell gelding showed 116 pounds in easy fashion and triumphed over six of the best horses at the course. The six furlong distance in the fifth race, fitted him like a glove; besides he was given a masterful ride by Greenwood. The small but enthusiastic attendance greeted his closing strides with a salvo of cheers as he nailed White Haven on the post.

Innocence was rushed to the front at the barrier's rise and unfolded the turn of speed to the far turn. It was here that Greenwood on Mouxie, reeled, his mount to the post, and the two runners almost as one horse to the spread for home. Here, Innocence exploded and soon fell into the track.

BOLD BID

Mouxie then scurried into the open and seemed to have the race well in hand a sixteenth out, but White Haven's bold bid in the last twenty-five yards caused Greenwood, on Mouxie, to fall into some quick urging, the gelding winning by a neck. White Haven, easily the best of the others, finished two lengths before Orleans Girl, who came with a rush, nipping Leenack at the wire by a nose for the show coin. The time, 1:14, was a creditable performance on a track just recovering from a slushy spell.

Culver City sprinters had their season in the fourth dash, at four and a half furlongs. The victor turned up in Quincy Ward, with Dan Arvi second and Emma Williams third. Dan Arvi as usual acted petulantly at the post, as usual at times to make a burlesque of his field clustered at the barrier. Finally, when the word was given, Old J was on his toes and away he darted to the front with the speed of jaxo comat.

IN A GALLOP

It looked all over Dan coming down the final eighth, but opposite the paddock, Quincy Ward, who had taken the overland bend, for home, simply ran over him, coping with consummate ease by three lengths. Dan Arvi finishing about six feet in front of Emma Williams for the show. Emma had a tempestuous journey. She got out of a labyrinth, however, in the last sixteenth, but she had a rough time with a rush, whiskering out. Eddie Randall for third money.

There will be two unusual preliminaries, the feature bringing together Russell V. I.A.A.C. for the past three years, national 140-pound champion and the Grand Prix of the University of Southern California star. In the other event Fred and Arthur, the two school boys, the main event will be on by 5:15.

TRACK GHOST

Special announcement — Lena's Boy again finished inside the money at the seven-day-day sport, he has not missed a day. Force of habit made him play the part of a Culver City ghost during the "witching hour" Tuesday. Through some peculiar prank of fate, he seemed to have heard the bugle call, so he broke through the door of his stall—fox-trotted to the six furlongs starting post and stood there shivering for the barrier to go up, while a gang of stable hands, well fortified with whisky, looked on to ensure that he was thought to be some unearthly monster that had swooped into the paddock to flick it into the ocean.

Yesterday's results: First race, claiming $200, 5-year-olds and up. Six furlongs—Dan Arvi, 1:14, won; Quincy Ward, 1:15, second; Emma Williams, 1:16, third. Time 1:14.

Second race, claiming $200, 3-year-olds and up. Six furlongs—Quincy Ward, 1:14, won; Dan Arvi, 1:15, second; Emma Williams, 1:16, third. Time 1:14.

Third race, claiming $200, 3-year-olds and up. Six furlongs—Quincy Ward, 1:14, won; Dan Arvi, 1:15, second; Emma Williams, 1:16, third. Time 1:14.

Fourth race, claiming $200, 3-year-olds and up. Six furlongs—Quincy Ward, 1:14, won; Dan Arvi, 1:15, second; Emma Williams, 1:16, third. Time 1:14.

Fifth race, claiming $200, 3-year-olds and up. Six furlongs—Quincy Ward, 1:14, won; Dan Arvi, 1:15, second; Emma Williams, 1:16, third. Time 1:14.

Sixth race, claiming $200, 3-year-olds and up. Six furlongs—Quincy Ward, 1:14, won; Dan Arvi, 1:15, second; Emma Williams, 1:16, third. Time 1:14.

My Daddy Cops Feature Race on Border Turf

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN DIEGO, Jan. 30.—In a snappy contest over the six-furlong route My Daddy got up to win by a head from the top-heavy favorite, Nayavirt, in the feature handicap at Tijuana today. Nayavirt set the early pace, but the superior relationship of Jockey O'Donnell turned the trick in the final eighth.

Fighting Turk was much the best in the fifth race, leading all the way and standing off from the pack when the latter made a determined fight in the stretch. Upsets occurred in the second race when the favorite, Black Shasta, was beaten by the underdog, Plurality, and in the other long shot, Plurality, and in the last race, when Black Shasta came from adversity in the stretch to nose out Lisette. ## ARIZONA POLLS ISSUES DEFINED

Colorado River Pact Will be Outstanding Question

Gov. Hunt is Attempting to Prevent Agreement

Presidential Delegates Are Solid for McAdoo

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) PHOENIX, Jan. 30.—Political activities in Arizona will be in full swing within a few weeks. At present there appears no doubt that McAdoo will get the Arizona delegation to the New York convention. But there is said to be something of an oversupply of Democrats who would represent their party at the convention—delegates or as Presidential electors. It is proposed that a Presidential primary be held, the Democratic electors with regard to the Presidency and for a picking of delegates by district. Announcement has been made that Chairman Vernon Vaughn of the State committee will call a meeting in March to start the ball rolling.

If a special primary be determined on, it has been proposed that the party at the same time voice its preference for the large issues, such as the Mellon tax plan, the bonus and the tariff. If there be no primary of the sort, the State committee will decide whether it will choose the delegates or call a special conference or convention. It is pointed out that, though Hunt upset the convention nomination for Governor two years ago a large majority of the convention nominees were successful in the primaries and at the general election. Gov. Hunt and his adherents are for McAdoo.

RIVER PACT ISSUE
Gov. Hunt appears to be going into the primary for renomination, mainly on the issue of the Colorado River compact, called by him "damnable." He has quite a following and there is no assurance at present that his ideas may not prevail in the primary. As a candidate, on the issue he has chosen, there is a probability that he would lose the general election votes of the strong Democratic counties of Yuma and Mohave, which are decidedly pro-pact. No candidate thus far has appeared in opposition to Carl Hayden, Democrat, Arizona's sole representative in the lower House of Congress. But Hayden is a firm supporter of the compact, declared by him just and favoring every Arizona interest. If the Governor makes pact opposition a tenet of the Democratic party for the campaign, the pact will be afforded by comparison of his speeches with those of Hayden.

TO AFFECT LEGISLATURE
The compact question is to be a large one in the selection of members of the next Legislature. It is probable that it will be a more pressing issue than will be contained in partisan politics. If the next Legislature be favorable to the pact, the issue will not need to be put before the incoming Governor, save for transmission to Washington. The Hunt side may place the matter before the electors in a referendum instruction, directed at the Legislature.

ture, thus far emphasizing the question. With few exceptions Arizona Republicans favor the compact. It is believed that hardly more than a bare half of the Democrats can be mustered against it by the State administration. It therefore is evident that Gov. Hunt is putting his political future in the balance. He will be opposed in the primaries by Mulford Winsor of Yuma who is strongly for the compact, and possibly by A. A. Betts of Phoenix, whose entry appears rather in the interest of Hunt, from whom he would take the lesser number of votes at the nominating election.

WIFE COST LESS THAN COCKTAIL

French Count is Acquitted;
After Trial Before Crowd;
Married Twice

(BY CABLE—REUTERS DISPATCH) PARIS, Jan. 30.—Ferdinand, Count de Jouffrey Dabney, a member of an old aristocratic family and the son of the former consul at San Francisco, was acquitted today before Chalon after a three-hour trial which the packed courtroom enjoyed as much as a first-rate comedy.

The Count, who was born in San Francisco, married an English woman, Charlotte Griffin, in 1914, and a French woman, Marie Dabney, in 1919. He did not deny the charges. "One can have thirty wives in England if he keeps them in thirty different towns."

He said his English marriage "took three minutes and cost three francs and thirty-five centimes, which is cheaper than a cocktail."

The Count, who was never arrested, drove to court in a limousine being cheered by crowds. The Dowager Countess told the jury that her son was a "gentleman and a perfect gentleman."

It took the jury four minutes to set him free.

AMATEUR IN KNIFE TRICK IN HOSPITAL

First One of Ten Bought to Show Feat of Sword
Swallowing

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Jacob Suenko, 885 North Paulina street, was believed to be dying today at St. Mary's Hospital following his attempt to master the classic art of sword swallowing. He bought ten butcher knives in a 5 and 10-cent store and yesterday started to perform the trick of swallowing the blades one after another.

His frantic family called police and the police called a doctor. Jacob is said to have got the idea after seeing a vaudeville performer perform the act without apparent evil effects.

ARIZONA GUARD TO LOSE ARTILLERY

LACK OF ATTENDANCE AT DRILLS IS GIVEN
AS REASON

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) PHOENIX, Jan. 30.—Artillery units may be eliminated from the National Guard of Arizona. Battery D at Flagstaff, is to be transferred into a howitzer company, attached to the One Hundred and Fifty-eighth Infantry, because of lack of attendance at drills. The battery has a fine lot of horses and has a large armory and machine guns.

In captain, H. B. Emmebach, lately was designated as a major in the infantry, but the order has been revoked.

The Mesa battery is being maintained with the highest maintenance of any of the guard units. It may not have its annual camp but is expected to be sent to Fort Sill, Okla., where there may be consolidation of all the units of the light artillery regiment, which also has units in Colorado, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Relaying of water mains, at an estimated cost of $200,000, will be necessary in many instances before the permanent improvements can be put in.

American Ships---American Mud

By Garet Garrett

America has a $3,500,000,000 merchant marine nucleus—partly afloat, partly rotting in harbors, partly vanishing into air. Foreign nations—government, press and business—are all behind their ships, cheering them on. The American public shifts its attitude toward its merchant marine with every political breeze; veers with every cat's paw that flurries the press; drifts aimlessly because business does not know from day to day whether we are in shipping to stay or to sink without a trace. Mr. Garrett points out that the basic proposition is an essentially simple one—what kind of future does America want?

Second Mourning

By Albert W. Atwood

Before the heirs to an estate can secure their inheritance, they must pass through a period of second mourning—financial mourning. The States are lined up behind the Federal government, with all kinds of inheritance laws, all kinds of tax demands, all kinds of transfer restrictions. Under one situation that might conceivably obtain, inheritance taxes would total 130%. If you have been left a fortune, order lavender.

There She Blows

By Isaac F. Marcossou

Less than a century ago, "There she blows!" meant a few hundred barrels of sperm oil to help light the world. Now it means a twenty thousand barrel gusher of crude oil that turns into light, heat, power and gold at the mouth of the well. Mr. Marcossou has been covering the American and Mexican fields looking into promotion, production, wastes, reserves, speculation, investment, national and international struggles for the most precious mineral under the earth.

Railroad Consolidation

By Herbert Hoover

A heavy title, and a solid, but vitally important subject, made clear by the Secretary of Commerce. Many men are advancing plans and panaceas for the railroads. The better they look and the more they promise for nothing, the more they will cost the taxpayer, who must pay the freight if the shipper doesn't. Secretary Hoover considers consolidation. In union there is lower freight rates.

MARRIED TWELVE YEARS BEFORE BABY CAME

Gladly Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Louisville, Nebraska. "I was married twelve years before my boy was born. I had a lot of female troubles and had been treated by a physician for them but they continued much the same. Then I read your advertisement in the newspapers and thought I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a good trial, for if it had helped others, why not me? I have taken 36 bottles of the medicine and am never without it in the house. My baby boy is three years old now and I sure am happy since I got relief from my troubles. When any one has troubles like mine, or any ways like mine, I am always glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound so that they will get the right kind of medicine." Mrs. J. M. JONES, Box 622, Louisville, Neb.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 50 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Cured His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. I tried one of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. To be sure, I have no time to tell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Foster, Carpenter, 4014 Marquette Ave., Minneapolis, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation. (Advertisement.)

Liners Guarded by Submarines for Smuggling
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, Jan. 30.—The submarines R-3 and R-3, stationed at Pearl Harbor, today maneuvered around three trans-Pacific liners, the Tenyo Maru, President Wilson and President Cleveland, which are in the harbor here.

BUTLER TIRED OF HIS JOB

Marine Officer Decides Task of Cleaning Up City of Philadelphia is Virtually Hopeless

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Although most of the residents of Philadelphia still regard Brig. Gen. Smedley Darlington Butler, U. S. M. C., loaned by the government for a year to clean up the city, as something of a miracle worker, and consider that Philadelphia is well on the road to better morals, Butler is frankly "tired" of the task as head of the police department, and even threatens to go back to his command in the marines unless he is given a greater measure of co-operation by his own forces and by the city magistrates.

Whether the job was more difficult than he conceived, Gen. Butler is not saying. He has admitted, however, that his promise when he took office to rid the city of vice and crime within forty-eight hours was but "a manner of speaking," and that he realized that the job would take considerably longer. It is now three weeks since the general began his spectacular housecleaning.

That he has improved conditions considerably is not to be denied, but 1500 saloons are still open and doing business, though on a somewhat reduced scale, and serving a horrible potion under the guise of whiskey. Street walking is not curbed, some disorderly houses still are operating openly, and hand bookmaking has not been materially reduced. Crime, like vice, is rampant.

Gen. Butler found his path of duty beset with political thorns. He calls his department of public safety a "whispering gallery," and already has declared himself "sick of the rotten job."

RESCUE OF SHIP CREW
BRAVE ACT
President Taft Officer and Filipino Sailors Figure in Heroic Adventure

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TOKYO, Jan. 30.—First Officer Sommer and five Filipino sailors of the steamship President Taft were the heroes of a thrilling rescue in a heavy gale of the captain and crew of the British freighter Mary Horlock from Seattle. The President Taft, responding to S.O.R. calls twice circled the sinking freighter, pouring oil on the water.

The Horlock's crew launched a boat in which half the crew reached the President Taft. The rest of the crew, including the captain, were not able to reach a second boat.

First Officer Sommer and the Filipinos volunteered to go to the rescue. They took the Horlock's boat back to the wreck, through smashing seas, bringing the rest of the crew back safely. Cyrus E. Woods, United States Ambassador to Japan, who witnessed the action, praised the seamen for their bravery.

WIFE NAMES YOUNG GIRL AS VAMPIRE
Charges Affection Theft Results in Squandering of $500,000 Savings

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—"I will not divorce my husband so you can get him," said Mrs. Samuel E. Horney, 42 years of age, in Judge Baras's court.

"I wouldn't have him if you did," retorted Mrs. Gladys Benjamin, young and pretty.

Mrs. Horney, a worn and tired little woman with kindly brown eyes, says Mrs. Benjamin has stolen the affections of her husband, Samuel, and was accepting from him thousands of dollars, steadily eating into the $500,000 which the Horneys had toiled all their lives to accumulate against their old age.

"I don't know anything about your old husband," said Mrs. Benjamin. "Why, the idea. Take fur coats and diamond rings and things from an old man? Why, the idea!"

Nevertheless the court ordered her to produce evidence showing that Horney has not been supporting her in luxury in a costly flat.

SANTA MONICA

YOUR HOME—AND WHY

People will go where they can get most for their money or effort.

They will go where their desires are most completely satisfied.

No other place in the world can give you the things that are yours at Santa Monica.

Father has a home in the midst of comfort and recreation—yet he is as close to business as other men.

Mother has an ideal home in the beauty and quiet of nature's rarest combination of gifts—but she has immediate contact with all the society, entertainment, activities and pleasures afforded by a great metropolis.

The children have an ideal environment in which to unfold—and every recreation and amusement is close at hand.

People living in less favored places go away for comfort in summer, or winter, or both. They go away for recreation and retreat. They go on account of business, or for a social season.

They go away to contact with big minds and refreshen themselves on the world's affairs. They go to attend metropolitan theaters.

They go to be at the seashore and enjoy water sports.

They frequently have to go to shop for themselves, families and homes, or to secure help.

They often have to send the children away to school or college.

Now suppose that you can see the sunrise over old Baldy and set in the most glorious burst of beauty known to man, out across the peaceful sea, and that between sunrise and sunset or sunset and sunrise you can have and enjoy all of these things and sleep under your own roof every night in the year, if you wish, isn't that much more than you can get anywhere else on earth, no matter how much wealth you may have?

Out on the horizon the ships will come and go from and to every port in the world. Down below, on the wide beautiful beach, hundreds of thousands of people will enjoy themselves. At your door is golf, bathing, scenic motoring, riding, boating, flying—mountains, canyons, mesas, clubs and three hundred and sixty-five days a year of climatic comfort—cool in summer, warm in winter.

And all the time you will be living in the front yard of one of the world's great cities—the center of the most interesting developments in America for the next fifty years!

Santa Monica is at the end of the road, at the top of the ascending scale. First people want to come to California, then to Los Angeles and eventually they want to live in Santa Monica.

Why not make the last, first, save time and money, and add to your years of joyful living? Come.

RUM UNDER BOAT CAUSE OF ARREST

Water Taxi Company Head Held on Charge by Dry Squad Police

Belief was expressed by police that Zilba, using the fleet of powerboats, had been bringing liquor in wholesale quantities into Los Angeles Harbor.

WORLD AIR FLIGHT WILL START FROM LOCAL FIELD

Planes Built in Southland Picked for Epochal Aerial Voyage of American Aviators

The round-the-world airplane flight, the most ambitious project in the brief but sensational history of aviation, one in which a flight across the Atlantic Ocean is merely an incident, is to start from Southern California in March. Official announcement to this effect was received yesterday from Gen. Mason M. Patrick, chief of the United States Army Air Service, which is to attempt the epoch-making feat.

Southern California not only has the distinction of providing the planes for the flight, but likewise the official starting point on this most daring of aerial undertakings.

Official announcement designating Clover Field, Santa Monica, as the official starting point, was made by the Army Air Service.

AUTO MAY BARE CLEW TO MURDER

Blood-Stained Machine Causes Search to Find Possible Victim

Grim clues to a possible murder mystery were seen by deputy sheriffs yesterday in an automobile found abandoned in Coyote Pass.

The rear seat of the vehicle was covered with blood and there were several marks on the upholstery that appeared to have been made with a knife.

The discovery was reported to Deputy Sheriff Allen, Sweeney and Bingham, who investigated and found, they say, that the car was the property of A. R. Wylie of 1503 Second avenue, who had reported it stolen some weeks ago.

It was a Chevrolet touring car. The blood was all over the cushions of the rear seat, which was

CONTRACTOR QUILTS TUNNEL

Called From Second-Street Project When Long Extension Time is Refused

The new almost-ancient Second-street tunnel ceased operation at 12:30 a. m. yesterday, when Contractor J. A. Hill ordered his men to quit the job, following the refusal of the Board of Public Works to grant the contractor another six months' time extension for completion of the tunnel.

The board at its morning session had given the contractor a forty-five-day extension, but this the contractor refused to accept.

On the day, Deputy City Engineer R. H. Bacon, who is supervising the tunnel job, from the Board of Public Works, told Contractor Hill that he had ordered his men out of the tunnel and that the tunnel was closed.

Public Works then ordered watchmen to guard the tunnel, and the contractor was told to leave the tunnel, which was to be closed.

POMONA POKER ORGIES CHARGED

Forty Men Reported to Have Been in Games

Youth's Trial Starts Quits Involving Girls

Valley Police Confer With Joes on Action

Investigation of alleged wholesale "strip" poker and dice parties in which forty-seven Pomona men are said to have participated with minor girls of that city, located yesterday the result of information furnished Juvenile Court authorities and representatives of the District Attorney's office.

The attention of the District Attorney's office was first drawn to the alleged parties yesterday afternoon in Judge Archibald's court when Harold Hollifield, 20 years of age, residing at 576 South White avenue, Pomona, was before Judge Archibald for preliminary hearing in a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Alita Brunton, a 16-year-old school girl of the valley city.

According to Dep. Dist. Atty. Joes, who is prosecuting the case, Hollifield and Fitzwater were arrested in the girls' home in Pomona on the 24th inst., at which time the officers said they found the quarrel in session after an alleged "strip" dice game in which the four were said to have participated.

Information that this alleged party was but one of many in which more than two score older men took part on separate occasions came to Mr. Joes from Constable Chambers of Pomona and a Mrs. Rogers, welfare worker.

Mr. Joes could not say just whether any girls other than the Brunton sisters were involved in the alleged parties, but he said that the Pomona authorities will work in accordance with the District Attorney's investigators in running down the clues now available.

Mr. Joes said that the arrest of Hollifield and Fitzwater resulted from an attempt on the part of others to shield themselves from prosecution on similar charges.

Two more reports of information that this alleged party was but one of many in which more than two score older men took part on separate occasions came to Mr. Joes from Constable Chambers of Pomona and a Mrs. Rogers, welfare worker.

Photos, Poem Cause Her Arrest

Helen Brown
Twenty-four-year-old dancing girl, was arraigned on two charges yesterday, following raid on rooms of two friends accused of being loaded dice manipulators. One charge was for violation of dry law, and the other vagrancy.

GAMBLER'S GIRL ARRESTED

Photographs, Poem and Liquor Lead to Two Charges; Two Partners Held as Dice Men

Two photographs and a poem caused Helen Brown, an attractive 24-year-old dancing girl, a peck of trouble yesterday. The photographs and poem were taken into custody with Miss Brown early yesterday morning when she was arrested by Detectives Berenwig, Brown and Schubert at 762 Hartford street where, the officers later stated to Police Judge Pope, the girl was living with two loaded-dice manipulators. The arrest of the two men led to the arrest of the girl.

RAID NETS MEN
The accused dice jugglers were taken in a raid at the Central Market where, according to the complaints of several market employees, they were operating crooked dice games and a bunko game. The prisoners gave their names as Leroy Lorton and E. J. Cogan. A second raid on the rooms of the men caught the girl, a score of the photographs, a poem and a gallon of liquor, the photographs and the poem in the net. Lorton declared that Helen Brown was his wife. This, the girl denied. Lorton was found guilty in Police Judge Chamber's court on a charge of gambling and he will be sentenced today. Cogan pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for February 14.

CONVICTED TRIO MAKE PLEA

Men Found Guilty in Chapman Slaying Charge Judge Erred; New Trial Sought

Motion for a new trial of the case of John Sears and John Geregac, found guilty of first-degree murder without recommendation by a jury in Judge Avery's court last Monday, was made yesterday by Nathan Goldberg, attorney for the convicted men, when they were brought before the court for sentence.

Goldberg based his motion chiefly on statutory grounds, submitting three affidavits to support his contention that the defendants were entitled to a new trial. Two of the affidavits were signed by Goldberg, while the third bore the name of Deputy Public Defender Fulcher, counsel for Jack Ferdinand, also facing sentence of death for his part in the murder.

ICE PLANT PROTESTED BY CITIZENS

City Council Hears Views of Property Owners Active in Opposition

D. K. Edwards headed a large number of property owners in the district near Third street and Westmoreland avenue who appeared before the Public Welfare Committee of the City Council and strongly protested against the action taken by the Council on the 8th inst. permitting the building of an ice manufacturing plant adjoining the Bimini Baths and near the Westlake School for Girls.

"I was astounded," said Mr. Edwards to the committee, "when I learned the Council had overruled the City Planning Commission, which had ruled against an industry being located in this residential district. The property owners who have their homes adjacent to this property knew nothing of this ordinance coming before the Council, and we are here now to ask that the Council give the property owners and opportunity to show why in our opinion this ordinance should be repealed before the zoning change becomes effective on February 10."

The suggestion was made and adopted that Chairman Gregory and Councilmen Allan of the committee meet the protesters and the proponents of the ice factory plan at the Westlake School for Girls on Saturday afternoon.

The committee will hold a special meeting Monday afternoon. The petition for the industrial zoning of the property adjoining the Bimini Baths was presented to the Council by the Gillette Realty Company, and at yesterday's meeting the ordinance was defended by Grant O. Gillette, president of the company.

THE NETS OF FATE
 They tell us that man is nothing but a worm. This explains why he so readily falls a prey to some alert chicken.

THE COMING WOLF
 Eighteen out of twenty persons in middle life do not make definite provision for old age. Possibly they do not expect to live that long.

THE BIG CLASS
 William Jennings Bryan is once more running his tourist Bible class at Miami, Fla., and sometimes has 4000 or 5000 persons in attendance. As a Democratic politician Bryan is about the best Sunday-school teacher we have.

NO TAXPAYERS
 There are towns in Holland where no taxes are levied. The income from municipal property of various kinds is ample to cover all the costs of government. Outside of a dream book nothing of this kind could happen in America.

THE WOMAN OF IT
 The Brooklyn woman who was arrested for voting three times in one day is defended upon the hypothesis that she was merely exercising the sex prerogative of changing her mind. She didn't vote for the same candidate each time. They could hardly call her a repeater under those circumstances.

A HEADQUARTERS
 A careless bootlegger walked into the new offices of the prohibition enforcement service in Chicago to find if there was any market for his wares. When he found out where he was he remarked that he ought to have known that they had plenty of stuff of their own, but it was hard to keep track of all the customers.

I AM AT THE JAIL
 The County Jail is said to have been originally constructed to accommodate about 200 guests. This week the sheriff reports the high mark at 787 inmates with a waiting list hanging on the door outside. About the only way a burglar can break into jail now is to use a shoehorn and leave his tools and baggage outside. There are more prisoners just now than ever before in the history of the city and if the workers do not speed in the construction of the new building some of our prize criminals will have no place to sleep. They are crowded so densely that a man is apt to get his hands in another's pockets by mistake.

AT THE STRETCH
 A Kansas City man is said to have in approach in the longest meal on record. He is declared to have eaten over two miles of spaghetti in a trifle over two hours. The consumption by actual measurement is said to have been 10,584 feet and the accomplishment was a feature of the annual banquet of Little Italy in the city by the Kaw. There were two well-matched contestants in the final, the runner-up having achieved a record for snoring 1000 feet of his favorite fodder every seven minutes. But he couldn't keep up like the champion, who was master of all the tools used in his marvelous exercise. The performance was said to have been a wonderful exhibition of skill as well as endurance.

EMOTIONS AND ATTITUDES
 The professor of psychology says that our emotions are affected, if not governed, by the position of the body. It is hard for a man to have lofty thoughts or express high purpose when his nose is being rubbed into the ground by some brute assailant. It is difficult for one to utter altruistic sentiments or breathe words of love while the body is curled up in the throes of fumbago. The professor adds that if a man stands up and throws out his chest he may experience the spirit of the conqueror. If a man carries himself in a slouchy fashion his mental features will be likewise cloudy and overcast. People grow to be what they look like. It isn't so very hard to pick out a good woman. Character is apt to be reflected in the face. The trouble is that a lot of men are looking at the feet.

OUTLAWING WAR
 At the next assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva a formal declaration may be adopted outlawing war as a coercive agency of civilized nations. The use of armed force by one people against another will be declared a lapse into barbarism. Of course, such a resolution might not stop all armed conflicts, yet there are few modern nations who care to defy the mandates of civilization. Even the Turks and Russians might not care to find themselves eternally listed among barbarous peoples. There are now some fifty-three nations in the big League and it is evident that the machinery of the organization is enabling a lot of them to keep their temper better than they have been able to do for centuries. We may yet have a United States of Europe as a result of the League. That was the desire and hope of Benjamin Franklin when the American Revolution had determined the destiny of a continent.

THAT TEAPOT DOME TEMPEST
 Judging from latest developments, the Senate committee hearings over the leasing of naval oil lands will prove a disappointment to the disgruntled and expectant politicians who inaugurated them. Their political purpose was clear from the beginning. The Democrats and the insurgent Republicans hoped to involve the administration in something resembling a scandal for the purpose of making campaign capital out of it.

President Coolidge promptly appointed two investigators who have never been connected with the Republican administration, one of them, in fact, Attorney-General under the Wilson administration, to ascertain facts and "to prosecute these cases in the courts so that, if there is any guilt, it will be punished." By this action he lifted the investigation out of politics.

He ordered the investigation for a two-fold purpose—to prosecute anyone who is guilty of corruption and to cancel any or all contracts that are not to the best interests of the people of the United States. An upright Executive should not do less; he could not do more.

As always happens in political investigations, a great deal of extraneous testimony has been considered by the Congress committee. Facts which, if true, would have no relation to the case have been investigated and have been paraded as proof that there was collusion in granting the leases.

The President took the investigation out of the hands of the Department of Justice for the very purpose of divesting it of any possible political relations. This is no reflection, however, on the Attorney-General or any member of his staff; it is simply an earnest of the intent of the administration to have the case handled aggressively, but not politically.

It is not at all likely that former Attorney-General Gregory will show any favor to the members of the present administration who negotiated the leases. His experience as the head of the Department of Justice equips him admirably for the work before him. His appointment recalls that of Mr. Hughes by President Wilson to investigate the alleged scandals in the aviation service during his administration.

The American people have a right to know whether special favor was shown in negotiating those oil-land leases. They have a right to know whether there was criminal collusion; and, if such collusion be proved, to have the guilty parties punished to the full extent of the law.

But they have an equal right to know whether anyone has been falsely accused, for the purpose of furthering special political ambitions. There is always a tendency in this country to confuse accusation with conviction. To those who have followed the testimony before the Congress committee it is apparent that the whole tendency has been to magnify trifles; and where a double construction might be possible to presuppose criminal intent.

The Times repeats that, if there has been fraud and collusion, the guilty parties must be punished. But the President has already said this, and by a prompt and courageous action he has withdrawn the cloak of the administration from all parties in any way concerned.

THE FIGHT WITH CRIME
 Maj. Walter K. Tully, speaking at the annual banquet of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, stated a case and sounded a warning. Backed by facts and figures, he described the growth of crime in the city of Los Angeles and once more summoned the forces of good citizenship to the banner of law and order.

An overwhelming majority of the people of the Southwest are in sympathy with the fight against crime championed by Maj. Tully. But passive sympathy avails no souls. Those concerned for the safety of the home and the suppression of the thing and the bandit must get into the fight with bare fists—as the Crime Commission has been doing. Applauding or hooting from the sidelines leaves no mark on the organized minority that is pushing our crime record to a perilously high percentage.

Unless that percentage is materially decreased in the next twelve months we shall approach that condition of mass murder and potence reached in the first stages of the Russian revolution. Our women will be compelled to band themselves together in a Battalion of Death. For, when the hounds of lawlessness are unleashed, the sex that rightfully looks to man for protection is always the worst sufferer.

Organized society cannot continue indefinitely when the criminal percentage of increase exceeds that of the law-abiding population. This has been the state of affairs in the city of Los Angeles from the year 1919 to the year 1933. The work of the Crime Commission is flattening out the curve, but more support is needed—practical, active support.

Surely the bald facts, stated by Maj. Tully, that in the whole Dominion of Canada, with a population of 10,000,000, the annual number of burglaries committed is only a quarter of those recorded in Los Angeles alone—that in 1931 there were ninety-five robberies in all England and Wales as against 1020 committed within our own city limits—should rouse every red-blooded American here to combined and vigorous action.

We are all proud of the leaps and bounds by which Los Angeles has attained the reputation of the fastest-growing community in the world. Here, however, is another record to somewhat temper that pride. In 1919 we had 326 robberies; last year we had 1244. That is roughly a 400-per-cent increase in four years in crimes of violence. Continue the curve at the same rate of progress and where do we eventually arrive?

Through the strenuous efforts of a determined few the incoming tide has been checked. The present year is a vital one in the fight being waged for the good name of our city. Suppression of crime implies protection of our homes and the safeguarding of our mothers and wives and children. This should be the most inspiring object it is possible to place before the normal fathers and husbands of any community—and 90 per cent of our citizens are loyal and normal in the wish to save their own from the burglar and the beast. Yet, strange to say, in practice there is no more thankless task than organizing average citizens for the defense of their families and properties.

THE GOOD STAND-BY
 Candidly in the Baltimore Hotel—the oldest form of illuminant called into use in the world's most modern and scientifically equipped caravansary! For nearly an hour the other night the great hostelry had to depend on the humble taper when, through the blowout of a fuse, the blaze of 1000 electric bulbs was suddenly extinguished.

For all our magnificent modern progress we can't get away from the primordial. Such apparently trivial incidents as burning candles in the Baltimore bring home to us how close we still are to the sling-shot and the clay. A candle blows out and is lighted again. An electric fuse blows out and our human anti-hills are thrown into a scurry of confusion.

A modern miracle once in a while fails us and we are at once transformed into primitive savages. In our scientific flights we pass the impossible and, short of the tools of antiquity, we remain the helpless beetle under the heel of the giant. To that extent Prometheus is still bound.

Fundamentals are never superseded. Intermediates alone become extinct through the march of progress. Fifty years hence the flame of the oil lamp and the gas jet may have gone out forever. But the candle-maker will still be doing business at the old stand.

Society is still dependent on pins and the pin is essentially the same under power-driven machinery as it was centuries ago when it took ten men to make one. Our soaps are highly perfumed and contain more expensive ingredients, but they don't clean any better than the plain olive oils with which the pre-Christian era Greeks used to anoint their bodies.

String is as great a necessity, in spite of the invention of steel cables, as it was when David slung pebbles with it, and if all our steel cables broke down tomorrow we could still carry on the world's work with string. Nations are fed and cities are balled with the spade and the hoe. Steam scoops and gasoline tractors replace thousands of human laborers. But when Russia was on its uppers and there wasn't an ounce of mechanical horsepower available in the whole country it was the hairy musk with sticks of wood and scraps of iron who put the decrepit giant on his feet again.

And, in spite of electric stoves and steamless cookers, no more toothsome delicacy was ever offered a hungry man than a mess of freshly caught rainbow trout fried over a campfire in the mountains. Without the simple range we should be badly inconvenienced; without the handy gas we should die.

New schools of philosophy, modern thought, psychoanalysis, spiritual oneness, natural revelations, redemption by repetition, inspired discoveries—what a complicated religious system we have erected of wheels and wires and concentrated brain power!

And at the last, when the big fuse blows out and the bulbs are cold on the dead wires, how we grope through the gloom to find much more the candlelights of childhood!

PROPERTY OF THE WIFE?
 Judge Patrick Parker of San Francisco has a most weighty problem to decide, for which he found no answer in the law books. It concerns the question as to whether or not the engagement ring is really the property of the lady, even after she marries the donor.

David Trugman of the Bay City had been ordered to pay his wife $1800 separate maintenance. Instead he gave her $1150 and produced a canceled check for $650 to show that long ago in the halcyon days of courtship he had expended that sum on a diamond engagement ring for his future-wife. Inasmuch as he was allowing her to keep the ring, he deducted this sum from the amount the court ordered paid, on the ground that the engagement ring is merely a loan during good behavior to the wife.

The lady was wild with rage, but the judge opined that there might be some truth in her husband's viewpoint, despite the fact that the man who would keep the canceled check for such a sentimental thing as an engagement ring was about the meanest man in the world. If he rules that the deduction can be made another body blow will have been struck at the rights of women. Some jurists have contended that the engagement ring is the outright property of the girl, even if she jilts the donor; but, if she goes so far as to marry him in order to clinch her title to the sparkler and then loses, there is surely no justice in the world for women.

IN OLD MISSOURI
 The sombrero of Senator Jim Reed of Missouri has been definitely projected into the Presidential ring. There is no assurance that the Senator will be given the Democratic delegates of his home State without a struggle. He is the candidate of a faction rather than of a party and his appearance is not likely to have a soothing effect. At this moment William Gibbs McAdoo would probably defeat him in a Missouri primary. Also Gov. Gardner is preferred by many for advancement as Missouri's favorite son.

LEISURE FOR WORK
 A rabbinical year for authors as well as college professors is the bright suggestion of the Dial magazine. Writers are wont to get stuck in a rut, the highbrow publication declares, because they lack sufficient money to take a holiday and wander forth into new pastures in search of different material. This is the explanation offered of the monotonous sameness of all the work of some aspiring genius whose first works seemed to be filled with divine fire.

The Dial offers a yearly prize of $3000 to young writers whose work shows traces of genius. It fondly hopes that they will knock off work and spend the succeeding months in gleaming new impressions after the receipt of their check. It also believes the government should lend some financial encouragement to signally scintillating writers.

In the good old days a writer or painter did not have to worry about the daily bread at all, if he were a bona fide genius. All he had to do was to get on the good side of the king or some wealthy nobleman and he could live in clover all his life and write at leisure. While this was apt to make him a trifle lazy, still it provided us with Moliere, La Fontaine and a host of literary lights. But, of course, in ye olden time there were not so many who felt the cosmic urge to write.

The Dial sadly surmises that earning the family crackers has kept many a genius from being famous. But if he were granted a pension he probably would not work half as hard; pensions have such a demoralizing effect. And quite a number seem to have succeeded in making a place in the Hall of Fame without substantial leave or money, either.

HOW TO LEARN
 Hearing people say for thirty years that Rome wasn't built in a day doesn't impress that fact on you half as much as does the booming of the building of one three-roomed beach cottage by day labor.

TWO MINUTES OF OPTIMISM
 BY HERMAN J. STICH
 Why did McCoy Was Knocked Out
 Augustus Thomas, the American dramatist, tells the story of why Jack McCormack knocked out Kid McCoy in 1909. The odds were four to one in McCoy's favor. McCormack himself was so confident of winning that he divided his attention between McCormack and the newspaper men at the ring-side.

During a fleeting moment, while McCoy's attention was directed toward the newspaper men, he received the knock-out blow. Business and professional people often receive the knock-out blow when their attention is turned away from their work. The old proverb, "Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee," is a wise saw to heed.

The person who is careful, who tends strictly to business may not be so popular as the individual who never allows business to interfere with pleasure. He will not have the spectators laughing and joking with him. He will have success.

Some fellow-employees said to a certain hard-working stenographer, "Oh, what do you care? The boss won't notice it if you break your back over his work; you won't get any more pay." No one except that stenographer knows the names of those employees. Everyone today knows the stenographer. It was Edward Bok.

Kid McCoy allowed his attention to wander from his work. This delighted the newspaper men. It resulted in a victory for Jack McCormack. There is no doubt but what McCoy was the best fighter. He knew it himself. His opponent knew it. Yet he lost the bout.

Men who know their own ability lose out frequently in business, in professional life. The man who best knows his own limitations is the man who is often times less skillful, less brainy.

Divided attention causes one to lose; undivided attention means victory for the other.

RIPLING RHYMES

COWBOY FICTION

Sometimes I read the thrillers when tired of Milton's odes, and ride a while with killers along the western roads. The cowboys found in fiction have nothing much to do with the cowboys of fiction and are not a gent or two. We seldom see them doing a useful round of chores, the straying cows pursuing or fixing ranch-house doors. They're always challooting around on outlaw steeds and shooting, shooting, shooting and pulling movie deeds. They save the rancher's daughters when villains hold carouse and baffle wicked plotters instead of milking cows. Their war cries weirdly screeching they ride the plains pink, instead of calmly teaching the loosed calves to drink. They are romantic hustlers, a brave and nervous crew; they shoot the cattle rustlers and shoot the nesters, too; they shoot up any smarties who may wear city rags; they boot up any parties who criticize their movie deeds. Indicted Trio of Texas-Atlantic Oil Firm Contend Testimony Given Lets Them Out

G. P. Edgell, J. B. Sikes and W. F. White, who as the promoters of the Texas-Atlantic Oil Company, were recently indicted on a charge of using the mails to defraud, will resist return from Texas to Los Angeles for trial.

This is the corporation that advertised the Norman Selby (Kia McCoy) Company as sole agents for the sale of the stock of the company in Los Angeles, but it is now asserted that W. L. Barnett and another operator, who is a fugitive from justice, were the only persons who had such right, and all they had to do with the Selby company was to have an office on Spring street across the way from the real Norman Selby establishment.

church's truth, and as a body we must emphasize every angle of the faith concerning which we are at one.

On the other hand, "there are differences of views with reference to many aspects of the faith concerning which the church has always accorded its members, assuming Divine guidance, the right to think as they will. The policy of the church should be to perpetuate its own method, which implies a desire to include within the fold every man the least of whose mind as well as with his heart and soul."

"World Regulator"
Voicing his appreciation of "the human mind's clever attempt to abate evils" through inventions, discoveries and the political reforms, the bishop nevertheless sounded a note of warning against the deceptiveness of appearances and declared that "the world has been beguiled by the marvels of modern civilization."

"World's Courts and Alliances are splendid and important agencies looking to the end to be achieved, but the message of Christ to the world is that perfect society can be built only upon a foundation of perfected humanity," said the speaker. "The gift of joy, the blessing of peace will come, either now or hereafter, to a world that is transformed by faith and the regenerating grace of God."

BISHOP STEVENS SPEAKS
In his annual address to the clerical and lay delegates of the diocese, Coadjutor Bishop Stevens pointed to the fact that "the influence of Christianity is not limited to official action, but he showed how the church, through its members, invades and blesses secular institutions."

"We are sometimes so eager to have the church play its part in outside interests that we allow ourselves to be so much alienated by forces alien to the spirit of Jesus Christ. A pat on the back from some outside source of prominence in the philosophical or scientific world means more to some of us than that 'vehement virus' of which Bishop Talbot speaks."

"It is right for Christian men and women to be interested in the political, educational and commercial questions and enterprises of Southern California," said Bishop Stevens. "We ought to be interested in such things that we are. However, the doubt that looms large in my own mind is as to the importance to Christian people of many of these things as compared with the church's task of preaching the whole Gospel to the whole world. In any case, let us keep our minds clear as to the fact that if the church's program is worth anything it is worth everything."

Los Angeles, Calif., January 19, 1924.
I have lived in Southern California about 30 years, and have lived all over your country. When I saw your irrigation system, I made up my mind I wanted some of your land. I bought a piece in the Southwest. The water is brought to my land in compressed cement pipes. We have one of the finest water systems in the State, and very cheap maintenance cost.

Very truly,

NOTE IS AID TO
BANK ROBBERYBandit's Message Threatened
Death to OfficialDaring Robber Escapes in Auto After ChaseDetail of Five Police Fail
in Quick Pursuit

A note which threatened instant death to J. H. Sippelle, assistant manager of a Security Trust and Savings Bank branch at 1747 West Adams street, if he did not hand over $1500, aided a single-handed robber yesterday in obtaining nearly $1500. A citizen chased the robber several blocks, but lost him.

The man approached Sippelle's case and handed over a slip of paper which bore the words: "I have you covered. Will shoot to kill. Hand over $1500 quick. Walk to rear. I am desperate. Don't hesitate."

Sippelle lost no time in handing over a package of bills containing $200 or $300 more than was asked for and in walking to the rear of the bank as directed. The robber walked out, climbed into an automobile and drove away, and then Sippelle gave the alarm.

Louis Bolden, of 1239 West Twenty-fourth street volunteered to give chase and, in his own car, pursued the robber west on Adams street to Congress street and north to Twentieth street, where the robber turned again and then turned north on Berendo street. Here Bolden lost his trail.

Capt. Home of the detective bureau detailed five cars from Central station, two from Wilshire and two from University station, to search for the bandit, whose license number was given by Bolden as 559734. This license, the police say, was issued to Robert M. Clapp.

TARANTULA RUNS AMUCK

Almost Kills Gila Monster Training Partner; Grip
Broken by Applying Tijuana Elixir

BY CARL CRANE

Losing his temper, John L. Sullivan, Old Indian Joe's terrible tarantula, almost destroyed his sparring partner, Geronimo, the meanest Gila monster on earth while the two were mixing yesterday, in Sullivan's training quarters at the Ambassador grounds in preparation for the coming bout with the deadly Phillips headlight bug, to decide the world's insect championship. Only the presence of mind of Trainer Cactus O'Brien saved the lizard from extermination.

John and Geronimo were going through a system of leaps and bounds devised by the trainer to increase the big spider's speed when suddenly the tarantula leaped three feet higher than prescribed by the regulations and fell with a sickening thud on the frightened monster's back where he got a death grip with his formidable claws. The Gila, by a series of lightning-like, reptilian squirms, sought to rid himself of his terrible antagonist but failed.

LIQUID HITS SPIDER
Taking in the situation at a glance Trainer O'Brien, who at that moment was refreshing himself from a sagon purchased at Tijuana, let a drop of the liquid in the bottle fall on the spider, which instantly curled up cold. Geronimo, glad to escape, dragged himself to his cage where he feebly licked his wounds. Sullivan recovered and temporarily after restorative had been administered but lapsed into a state of semi-coma later in the day. Alarmed, Referee John Barton, Dr. Felix Philippopolous, entomological expert from the Galapagos Islands, who is spending the winter at the Biltmore.

After examining the tarantula and taking a drink of the Tijuana brew to test its entomologist's stated that the spider's sudden attack and subsequent coma had been induced by his consuming the raw liver. Philippopolous then took another drink and advised Cactus that all liver served the batter in the future ought to be thoroughly cooked. John was a sick spider last night and refused to partake of even cooked liver, but the doctor assured the fighter's friends and admirers that he will survive.

MAY COME BACK QUICKLY
"I regret this incident very much," said Referee John Barton Brown, "as it will probably be several months before Sullivan can resume his training. Had anything possible will be done to hasten his recovery and it may be that with his powerful constitution he will come back sooner than expected. In the meantime, the training of Jack Johnson, the headlight bug, will be suspended until Sullivan is himself again. The dark secret that has hitherto reigned about the training camps will be maintained, however, as we are particularly anxious not to have the newspaper men know anything about this affair."

SEEK MAN
IN ATTACK
ON WOMANOfficers Investigating Find
Lynching Party in Search of Suspect

Police were searching yesterday for Hans Christensen of 3815 Valley Street, whom, according to Officers Watson and Doyle, neighbors organized a lynching party late Tuesday night. It is asserted Christensen had attacked Mrs. Bertha Halmaren, a roomer in the house, with a butcher knife.

Mrs. Halmaren screamed the officers said, and Christensen ran in the direction of the Los Angeles River. When the officers arrived they found a large crowd, armed with clubs, searching the river for the man and threatening to lynch him if they found him. They failed to find him.

NEW PLAY PREMIERE
AT EGAN'S TONIGHT

The premiere of another new play is scheduled for tonight at the Egan Theater, when "White Collars," a comedy by Edith Ellis, who wrote "Mary Jane's Pa" and one or two others, will engage the attention of Earl Foxe, Mabel Forrest (Mrs. Bryant Washburn) Robert Ober, Ruth Lee, Claire De Brey, Zillah Covington, Blanche Douglas, George Sherwood and Paul Kruger, the cast.

"White Collars" has largely to do with the artificialities, fads, feigning fancies, follies, whims and social climbing aspirations of those we meet in everyday life. The humor of the play is the work of a woman who knows how to make delicate shadings of expression serve the purpose of amusement. In the construction of her play she is said to have succeeded in giving to the first and second acts the most unexpected sort of climaxes, which cause the audience to wonder what is going to happen next and to make a wholly satisfactory ending in the final play.

Lillian Albertson has attended to the staging of the play for Frank Egan.

ASKS DATA
ON PUBLIC
WORK FUNDCouncil Committee Seeks
Estimates on Amount to be Expected in Decade

In order to pave the way for a possible contribution from the city's public improvement fund for the opening of Broadway from Pico to Forty-first street, the City Council's Public Works Committee yesterday presented to the Council a report asking for a statement as to the amount of money which the city can reasonably anticipate during the next three years and then during the next eight or ten years for the public improvement fund.

Thus, a definite policy can be established as to the amounts that shall be contributed to improvements of general benefit, such as the opening of Broadway and the elimination of grade crossings.

The public improvement fund was created by the voters by a charter amendment and established a fund to be raised by an automatic allocation of 4 cents on each $100 property valuation in the city. Contributions to public improvements are then made from the fund by the Council. A contribution of $1,500,000 has already been pledged by the Council for the opening and widening of Tenth street from the east to the west city boundaries, and it is probable that a contribution of $500,000 will be made by the Council to the opening of Broadway, thus lessening the cost of this improvement to the property owners in the Broadway assessment district.

A statement of the actual sum expected to be derived from the 4-cent public improvement tax will assist the Council in its allocation of portions of this fund to the most necessary and beneficial public improvements.

The opening of Broadway is considered by the Council and all interested in traffic congestion relief in Los Angeles as the most important improvement project of general benefit now before the city government. The improvement will create a great north-and-south traffic artery and link in with the Broadway-to-the-Sea project which has been approved by the County Board of Supervisors, the County Planning Commission and the City Planning Commission.

HUNT MISSING WOMAN
Police yesterday were asked to aid in the search for Mrs. Margaret Glordania of 4949 Navarro street. Her brother, Chester L. Agnew, said the young woman disappeared on the 24th inst. She is described as 29 years of age, with brown eyes and brown bobbed hair.

LIGHTING POSTS APPROVED
The installation of ornamental lighting posts on Arden Boulevard between Third street and Wilshire Boulevard was approved yesterday by the City Council.

sang duets that all children must have enjoyed.

The Johnson family registered 100 per cent in attendance. The five little Johnsons, screen juveniles, introduced themselves, and then proceeded to give a band concert.
Kenneth played guitar, and bass and snare drums. Dick Winslow
the bells, Camilla, the triangle,
Sessel Anne, the tambourine, drums, and sleighbells; while the band played an expert at shaking the rattle. Mr. Johnson, a baritone, was soloist with the band. Their mother, Winona B.
Johnson told the children one of her Louisiana plantation negro stories. Dick Winslow, who enjoys the distinction of being the youngest interviewer, gave the substance of an interview with Mme. Pavlova, to whom he talked behind the scenes especially for The Times.

Adelaide Gladden, 8-year-old pianist, displayed talent in the playing of Grieg's "Elfin Dance" and "Minuet in D flat," by Bach.

Mrs. Elaine Seymour had "Lu-ner, she testified yesterday in Judge Summerfield's court, where she was granted a divorce from Walter A. Seymour. Lulu was Seymour's first wife, who had divorced him, she said, adding that she still was in love with the first after he married the second.

GIRL TELLS OF CAPTURE AND ESCAPE

Young Woman Says She Was Drugged; Suspect Is Identified

A story of how she had broken away from her male captor after she had been kept in a drugged condition in a room at 1114 South
Flower street, was related by Christina Robles to Officers Buford and Perry early yesterday morning at Central Police Station.
Shortly afterward, the officers arrested E. W. Hall, who she identified as her captor.

The young woman said that she was drugged and taken to the room several days ago, and had not been permitted to leave since.
She said she managed to escape through a rear door, and came directly to the police station. Hall was charged with suspicion of a statutory offense.

Venice Deputy Sheriff Faces Bribery Charge

Earl McDonald, special deputy sheriff at Venice, yesterday was held to answer by Justice Wood to a charge of asking and receiving a bribe. His accusers were R.
E. Davis and E. C. Burns, who said they were arrested by McDonald while hunting on the beach near Playa del Rey on December 4 last.
The two said that McDonald took their guns, and told them to call at his house the following day and arrange bail. They offered checks, they declared, which he refused. While they were going to the bank for cash they said they met Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark, and he advised them to offer marked money. Soon after their return to the McDonald home, the deputy was arrested.

W. R. Eram, a defense witness, was ordered held on a charge of perjury by Dep. Dist. Atty. Ryan, after he had testified that he had been present at the conversation between McDonald and the two hunters, and had heard no mention of money. Bail was fixed at $2000.

Las Moradas Apartments

"Your Apartment Your Own"

The Delights of a Home Without the Cares

To own an apartment in Las Moradas is to enjoy all the pleasures of a home of the better class, a home of exceptional luxury and convenience, with all the ease of the finer hotels yet with the perfect seclusion of the private dwelling.

How this is accomplished and the manner in which Las Moradas will be completed is graphically pictured by means of plans and elevations of the building and replicas and exact duplicates of some of the furnishings now on display at the parlors, 112 North Larchmont Boulevard.

The Cost of Living is Less Than In a Detached Home

Take for example the $14,000 Apartment which would probably rent for $300 a month.

In Las Moradas you pay $3500 down, $3500 in six months with the balance in equal monthly payments of $32.40 with interest at the rate of 7% on unpaid balance.

At a most conservative estimate, the cost of living in Las Moradas including daily maid service, light, heat, water, gas, refrigeration, telephone, elevator mop, housekeeper, porter, janitor, manager, gardener, insurance, taxes, maintenance and supplies are less than those of a detached home—a statement that may easily be proved to your entire satisfaction.

COCA-COLA HEAD VISITOR TO CITY

Tells of Tremendous Growth of Soft-Drink Trade

Looks for Good Year, With Strong Competition

Prosperity Credit Laid to National Outlook

Robert W. Woodruff, president of the Coca-Cola Company, is in Los Angeles making a new arrangement in the conduct of the company on the Pacific Coast. The business has grown to such an extent here that it is no longer advisable to conduct it from Atlanta, and a vice-president of the company, T. C. Thompson, until now of Atlanta, will be put in charge of the Pacific Coast territory and probably will reside here. The only factory on the Coast is at Los Angeles. Mr. Thompson is accompanied by Mr. Woodruff. They are at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

It is Mr. Woodruff's first trip here since he became executive head of the company, and he has some pertinent observations on business conditions here and generally in the country. In this the head of the Coca-Cola Company has an extraordinary viewpoint because the fifteen factories of the company scattered over the United States, Canada and Cuba, with 1200 bottlers and 105,000 retailers, form a pretty good industrial thermometer. From a seven-day wonder the company has grown in volume and stability, interlocking with important industries of the country.

EXPECT GOOD YEAR
"We look for a good year," Mr. Woodruff said yesterday. "But the competition will be unusually keen in many lines. The Mellon plan for tax reduction is very important. If it or some such plan goes through more money will be available. If it doesn't, well, we have to make do on some way with the tax and can continue. Our growth on the Pacific Coast has been more important. You say a lot of things out here about Los Angeles—a lot of things—but I find that they are true."

"But most important, I believe the national frame of mind is good and that, aside from any actual reasons for prosperity, is the main thing."

The soft-drink business, if it is conducted scientifically, takes into account the effect of climate on thirst, which is something few people ever consider. It is generally thought that thirst merely is due to warm weather or to exercise that heats the body. But Mr. Woodruff points out that dry air, regardless of its temperature, has much to do in producing thirst.

FREE FROM THIRST
That being the case, the coast line of California should be particularly free from thirst because it is never extremely hot and, while the rainy season is well defined, the dry spells have cooling damp breezes from the sea. A cooler yet dryer climate would produce more thirst.

"On this trip I was up in Canada," Mr. Woodruff relates. "We stopped at Moose Jaw one day when the thermometer was 35 below. In that weather as much of our product was being drunk there per capita as in, say, San Francisco. It was so cold it was very dry."

CONCESSIONAIRE FINED
F. W. Finch of Lomita yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a concession contrary to State gambling laws, and was fined $100 by Justice Hanby. Finch was arrested at Lomita, Tuesday by Investigator Lucas of the District Attorney's office.

Atop of World; Rest In Her Lap

Susanne Bordeaux and Miniature of State

Miss Bordeaux, a California girl, is seen sitting on the High Sierras, on the huge relief map of the State being made under auspices of the California Development Association. In her lap she is holding a model of a part of Los Angeles Harbor.

MAKES MINIATURE STATE

Huge Relief Map of California, 600 by 18 Feet, Under Construction in Los Angeles

A miniature of California, the greatest work of its kind in the history of the world, is now under construction in Los Angeles.

This will be placed in the Perry Building, San Francisco, and a second one will be immediately started as a permanent exhibit for Southern California, according to statements made yesterday to William Lacy, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, by R. E. Hale of Hale Brothers, Inc., San Francisco; Clinton E. Miller, Clinton E. Miller Company, Los Angeles; and E. W. Murphy, Johnson, Carvell & Murphy, Los Angeles, composing a special-exhibit committee of the California Development Association.

DETAILS ACCURATE
This massive replica, its dimensions being 600 feet long and 18 feet wide, will portray California life in the minutest detail and will be exact to the limit of modern science.

This work is being done under the auspices of the California Development Association, a statewide civic body has interested fifty-eight counties of the State in co-operatively financing the project, the cost of which is estimated at $100,000.

Boards of Supervisors, civic organizations and a wide variety of local clubs, and scientific bodies such as the United States Geological Survey, United States Forest Service, California universities, Highway Commission, Fish and Game Commission, Railroad Commission, Department of Public Works, State Water Commission, State Department of Agriculture, State Irrigation Association and the State Mining Bureau are furnishing facts relative to all phases of resources, industry and topographical features.

EDWARDS IN CHARGE
J. T. Edwards, F.R.G.S., noted geographer and designer of the famous Canadian exhibit of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, is the designer and construction engineer of the miniature. For six months Edwards has been in charge of the project, drafting, sculptors, geographers and artists building this most stupendous of miniatures at the old Mack Bennett studio, 1745 Glendale Boulevard, this city.

William A. D'Elbert, director of exhibits of the California Development Association and a noted Californian, has devoted the past three years in fostering the idea of California in miniature as the outstanding feature of a California Exposition. The thought was finally crystallized when 167 Supervisors, representing forty-one counties, approved the plan at their annual convention in Eureka.

Buildings of note in every locality will be modeled as to be readily recognized and immediately establishing the identity of the community. The most familiar with the herculean aspect of the work can be readily comprehended when it is known that the project necessitates the modeling of 1,000,000 miniatures of animals, trees, automobiles and other details incident to the life of our great State.

FOURTHS VOLCANO
Edwards, desiring that there be the throbbing of life in this greatest of his works, has part of his staff engaged upon mechanical features, such as portraying the eruption of Mt. Lassen, the only live volcano in the United States; the running of water in miniature to hear the distant ripple of cascades and falling water; showing sunrise and moonlight, the electrical illumination of all the buildings during the slumber hours of the Golden State.

The first model will be unveiled in the Perry Building, San Francisco, during the summer of this year. Immediately upon the completion of this miniature map to be placed in Southern California, another community in the State desiring a complete replica, or any part thereof, will be invited to place in California in miniature.

Mr. Hale further stated that the replica of California in miniature would be done so through and through co-operation of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, without cost or expense to this organization.

FOLLETTE'S PROSECUTOR RESTS CASE

Strong Plea is Made for Conviction in His Address to Jury

The testimony in the case of Channing Follette, on trial accused of perjury before Judge Keetch, was summed up yesterday by former Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark, employed as special prosecutor, who made a plea to the jury for conviction.

Late in the afternoon Defense Counsel Schenck began his argument, which, he stated, would continue for seven hours.

In connection with the close of the case an unusual feature presented itself in respect to the seven $100 bills, about which much of the testimony centered. The money was taken from Mrs. Edna Lindquist, wife of Carl Lindquist, while the grand jury was investigating his connection with the asserted "straw bond ring." On the assumption that the money was intended for a bribe, Follette, who was then presiding justice of the peace for Los Angeles Township, was called before the grand jury. His indictment followed some weeks later.

Mrs. Lindquist said that the money was given her by Edgar Hervey, an attorney whom Follette advised to represent Lindquist. Hervey said that he got the money, done up in a package containing a towel and a loaf of bread, at a Broadway drug store, and that he had been directed to do so by Follette. The defendant, on the stand, denied that he had placed the money there, insisting that a man calling himself "Hollins" had placed it there and then notified him. Handwriting experts have disagreed as to whether Follette wrote the check which was left with the package.

The money was offered for identification during the trial, and has been in the keeping of Deputy County Clerk McCloy. Since no one has admitted that he left it at the drug store there have been no claimants, and Mr. Clark offered it as his opinion that the money would stay in the County Clerk's office, "until it rots."

Mr. Clark went through the evidence, yesterday, pointing out what he termed as discrepancies between Follette's testimony and the evidence offered by the State. He insisted that Follette, as a justice of peace, had allowed himself to become deeply entangled with a band of crooks, and that he had manufactured certain statements which he gave before the grand jury to save himself from incrimination.

CARRIGAN WILL GIVE INAUGURAL ADDRESS

INDUSTRIAL SAFETY SCHOOL OF CHAMBER OPENING IS FEBRUARY 8

Industrial Accident Commissioner Carrigan has accepted an invitation to make the inaugural address, February 8, at which the Industrial Safety School, of the Chamber of Commerce will be formally established. The meeting will be in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

The purpose of the school is to further co-operation between employers and employees, and to employ a department of the Industrial Accident Commission. The first term of classes will continue through February and March. Statistics recently gathered show that there is a daily average of 100 deaths in this State of two fatal industrial accidents.

Despite the rapid increase of industrial employment in the State, Commissioner Carrigan said, co-operation in the use of safety devices and practice of safety methods has kept the compensation awards of the commission down to an average of $60 a month. This figure, however, represents only a small percentage of the total number of accidents, the majority of which are settled outside the department without controversy.

Mr. Carrigan will address the "Bakers' Research Bureau" February 8 at 12:15 p.m., at Oak Tavern, Fourth and Hill streets.

FACES GAMING CHARGE

A charge of operating gambling devices was placed yesterday against F. W. Finch, arrested by Chief of Detectives Lucas of the District Attorney's staff at Lomita. Lucas said Finch was conducting a carnival at that place.

ESTATE VALUED FOR TAX

Appraisal of the estate of Hugo R. Thim, who died in San Diego August 8, 1933, has been reported to the office of State Controller Riley for inheritance tax purposes. The estate is valued at $149,434.86 and the tax is $34,432. The principal legatees are two brothers.

AUTO OWNERS UNDER ARREST

Nine Drivers are Held When They Fail to Report Recovery

Nine men driving their own cars were arrested on suspicion of stealing them during the past month, because they failed to report their recovery to the police after listing them as stolen, according to Capt. Hickcock of the auto detail.

"We have had 657 automobiles reported stolen during January, and 345 reported recovered," said Capt. Hickcock yesterday. "I believe possibly 200 more machines have been recovered but have not been so reported by their owners. If they knew they were taking a chance of arrest they would be more careful."

It cost the nine careless owners, Capt. Hickcock said, much time and trouble to establish their identity and obtain release.

Carlin G. Smith Sued by Wife on Cruelty Grounds

Not satisfied with moving out of the house and leaving her, Carlin G. Smith called his wife, Helen K. Smith, on the telephone two or three times a week and addressed her in coarse language according to her divorce complaint filed yesterday. She charges cruelty.

"I don't love you and cannot live with you; you irritate me and make me nervous," Mrs. Smith said her husband told her before packing his clothes.

The couple were married in Oakland, February 9, 1912, and separated May 22, 1933, according to the complaint.

The only Carlin G. Smith listed in the city directory is Carlin G. Smith, president of the Carlin G. Smith Company, Inc., dealers in real estate, loans and insurance. He could not be located last night.

ACCUSER ACCUSED

Charge Puts Hahn to Trial of Woman in Forgery

The trial of Mona Harris on a charge of forging automobile contracts was cut short yesterday and continued until February 11, after defense attorneys had charged Tom R. Johnson, her accuser, with complicity in the forgery. This accusation was made to Justice Hanby in open court.

The accusation came during Mr. Johnson's testimony. He had told that Miss Harris, in his employ, had forged several automobile contracts and sold them at a discount to the Ide & White Co.

Attorney S. W. Thompson began to question the witness about the finances of his company, Dep. Dist. Atty. Heinicke objected.

"These questions are pertinent," Attorney Thompson answered. "Because I will attempt to prove that the Johnson Company owed money, payable at the bank immediately, and that Miss Harris forged the contracts to save the company."

SELF-DEFENSE PLEA WINS JURY VERDICT

A jury in Judge Ayer's department of Superior Court yesterday found Alfred Gonzales not guilty of a charge of having murdered Louis Deigado. Gonzales pleaded self-defense. Deigado was killed on August 28, 1933, in a street fight with Gonzales. Testimony showed that Deigado had attempted to stab Gonzales and that the latter drew a revolver and killed him. The fight was outside a saloon owned by Gonzales, who threw the ashes of his cigarette into a bowl of soup set before Deigado several days before the encounter.

SABBATH TRIAL BEGUN

The hearing of Sam Sabbath, proprietor of an East First-street second-hand store, on a charge of knowingly receiving stolen property, was begun yesterday before Justice Blake and Alex Mallet, self-confessed burglars, was still on the stand when court adjourned today. Mrs. F. J. Holmes of 389 South Berendo street identified a number of articles found in Sabbath's shop, which she said were stolen from her October 8, 1933. She lost $2500 in jewelry and clothing, she said. Mallet testified he sold the entire proceeds of the burglary to Sabbath for $250.
